

Jody Cox

CANADIAN GENERIC PHARMACEUTICAL ASSOCIATION (CGPA)
VICE PRESIDENT, FEDERAL AND INTERNATIONAL AFFAIRS

Jody is Vice President of Federal and International Affairs with the Canadian Generic Pharmaceutical Association (CGPA) and has led federal, legal, intellectual property and international trade files on behalf of the off-patent pharmaceutical sector in Canada since 2007.

She has concurrently served as Vice President of Biosimilars Canada, the CGPA's biosimilar medicines division, since its inception in 2015. She is focused on improving policy and regulatory environments to support timely patient access to biosimilar medicines and the expanded use of these safe, efficacious and cost-effective treatments. Jody has been actively engaged in the International Generic and Biosimilar Medicines Association (IGBA) work since 2009. She served as the 2024 Chair of the IGBA Global Biosimilars Week Task Force and is the Past Chair of the IGBA International Trade and Intellectual Property Committee. Jody has over 25 years of experience in public affairs and advocacy, primarily in the pharmaceutical and real estate sectors. She earned a Bachelor of Journalism degree from Carleton University.
